

James joined KCAR in April 2021 as the Government Affairs Director. With a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Western Washington University, James has over 4 years of political campaign experience, ranging from the city council to presidential level. James works with the Government Affairs Committee, RPAC Committee, Diversity and Inclusion Workgroup, local elected officials and political organizations to increase communication and to address the issues pertinent to our community.

James lives in Bremerton with his dog Leo and enjoys riding his motorcycle and rock climbing.